Mill 6 Presents the Boston Premiere of The T Plays

3 Weeks of new plays by our favorite playwrights. All written on the MBTA!

Opening September 17th 2008, at the Factory Theatre in Boston.

Over our first two weeks we'll present 10 World Premieres. Each Saturday five playwrights will board the subway knowing only the number of characters and the setting (the very subway they are on). At the end of the round trip they turn their freshly written script over to the director and actors. Three days later the shows go up!

The second week we do it all over again with new writers, directors and actors.

But there's more! Every night we'll be asking the audience to vote on their favorites. Our closing week October 2-4 we'll be presenting the winners in our "Audience Favorites" Final Week.

Celebrating our 10th year and 21st production, Mill 6 continues finding plays we love and bringing them to Boston. 2008 included our participation in the 10th Boston Theatre Marathon as well as our third year in FeverFest; Whistler in the Dark's summer festival of fringe theatre. Since its' founding Mill 6 has presented twenty productions including six world premieres and eight Boston/New England premieres. We have performed in Boston, Cambridge, Somerville, Arlington, Provincetown and New York City. Join us at the Factory Theatre on Tremont Street in Boston's historic South End, the most unique "black box" space in the city.
